

Hermosa Beach Pride Tower

The Hermosa Beach Pride Tower will be a reminder to everyone to accept, cherish, and celebrate what makes us all unique and special.

This past March, the Pride Tower in Long Beach was set on fire and destroyed.

It was an act of hate that resonated throughout the region.

Hermosa Beach is a place where everyone is welcome.

We share a deep and rich history of fighting for what is right; for our town, our residents, and our children.

During the month of June, our community will paint the 13th Street Lifeguard Tower to celebrate Pride - with love and dignity.

Everyone is welcome to join in the celebration.

Families, residents, visitors...please come join in the fun.

Together, as a community, we will celebrate what makes us all unique and special.
