My wife Sienna and I love Hermosa Beach! I am committed to insuring it continues to be "The Best Little Beach City" and will protect its distinctive character and our high quality of life. A life-long resident, I raised my family and operated a business here and have a long history of voluntary community service including as a Planning Commissioner. I want to continue to give back to the city we love.

During my current term, I had a major role in negotiations with Caltrans for improvements on Pacific Coast Highway and Aviation Boulevard and my commitment to fiscal responsibility help Hermosa Beach receive a Standard & Poor's AA+ rating that makes financing the measure O settlement reasonable. I will continue to seek pragmatic, collaborative solutions to the challenges ahead.

My continuing focus as your Councilmember:

- * Completing General Plan revisions and certifying our Local Coastal Plan
- * Completing Pacific Coast Highway and Aviation Boulevard renovations
- * Insuring sustainability and innovation intersect as we attain carbon neutrality
- * Supporting the excellence of our schools
- * Dedicating increase revenues from the TOT initiative to City infrastructure repairs
- * Completing Pier Plaza and Hermosa Ave renovations to make downtown more walkable and family-friendly
